In 1989, West Fork was a sleepy Alabama town. Kurt Rodgers longed to escape the rural life he had so despised. After a year of college, he finds himself back home, disillusioned. On that same night, a series of murders begin. Nightly, the body count rises. The one thing the victims have in common: bodies drained of blood. Taking a job with the local newspaper, Kurt delves into the killings. But this story will hit closer to home than he could have ever imagined. His sister has fallen for a stranger in town. One with a pale complexion and Old South drawl. There is something sinister about Nick LeRoux, Kurt is sure of it. But he is helpless to stop the spell that LeRoux has placed on her. By the time Kurt discovers the truth, it is almost too late.
