"Sterling Biographies" are packed with information, and are filled with unique images that include rare documentary photographs, artwork, maps and personal artefacts. Focusing on inventors and innovative thinkers who transformed the world, they present first-person accounts and dramatic events related in an intimate and accessible style. Alexander Graham Bell spent the greater part of his life trying to improve the way people communicated with one another and it was this desire that led him to create his most famous invention, the telephone, which turned him into one of the most well-known names of all time!
