Community health nurses are confronted with unique problems throughout their career. Students learning from CASE STUDIES IN COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING PRACTICE are prepared for these challenges. This unique text and workbook teaches students to think critically and apply knowledge to solve problems. As students explore each case in detail, they use problem-based learning techniques to apply their knowledge, ask the right questions, gather supporting data, sort through options, and determine optimal solutions with rationales and possible consequences. The problem-based learning approach in this text will help students develop creative and critical thinking skills and demonstrate problem-solving abilities.

* Includes 18 case studies representing various community health issues. Each case teaches students to apply what they already know and gather new information to determine solutions to real world and complex problems. * Provides questions to guide case analysis that take the student through the steps of the problem-solving process. * Employs a workbook-type layout in a lay-flat binding that allows ample room to take notes and write solutions to the cases. * Supports individual, small group, or classroom use with its format and case-study approach.
