Holocausto Manhattan (B de Books) (Spanish Edition) Bruno Nieves

Septiembre de 2010. Mike Brenner imparte una clase en la universidad sobre ondas binaurales, un tema que le preocupa por las graves adicciones que generan y que nadie parece estar detectando. Poco antes, una camioneta de reparto esta a punto de caer al río Hudson. Su conductor logra evitar el accidente, salvando así de una muerte segura a su familia, rehenes de unos tipos que quieren asegurarse de que cumple con su misión: transportar una bomba atómica al centro de Manhattan.

Febrero de 1944. Leon Yeser, un adolescente judío, es separado de su madre y de su hermana pequeña nada más bajar de uno de los «trenes de la muerte». Al intentar ayudarlas es brutalmente golpeado por un soldado nazi, al que mira fijamente a los ojos. Entonces, algo sucede. Poco después el nazi, tembloroso, llama a la puerta del bloque 10 para pedirle ayuda a la única persona que puede entender lo que acaba de sucederle: el doctor Josef Mengele.

Un thriller de acción trepidante y ritmo vertiginoso, que te dejara sin aliento por la agilidad de su trama y las impresionantes revelaciones que contiene.
