Annie Bridges and Jared Remington are on their way to Nevada and Annie is excited to meet her first werewolf and the other demons employed by Jared's security company. Investigating a few deaths is nothing that a half-demon woman and her vampire boyfriend can't handle until the black-clad assassin from their previous operation returns and ensnares her in his world. Annie's demon side emerges more with each threat and with the strengthening of her blood bond connection with Jared until not even he can recognize her. In the end, Annie learns her heritage is not what she's been told and it will change everything – not just for her but for every vampire in the world.
