What's the true meaning of Thanksgiving, and ever wonder if they celebrate Thanksgiving in other countries? Turns out they do. In fact annual celebrations of a bountiful harvest can be found all over the world, each with fascinating customs and delicious fare, all of which you can now not only be aware of but actually prepare with the international recipes in this book and share with guests. This book takes a light and fun trip into the world and meaning of Thanksgiving, and provides not only recipes but tips for hosting a memorable holiday as well. Come along as we dig deep into the actual meaning of Thanksgiving and try to instill a sense of appreciation for those we love and for life itself--an appreciation celebrated through the holiday and its customs as well as through the sage words of philosophers and comedians alike.
