When a woman who left years ago finally comes home to the Lowcountry, a beat cop with a rocky past has two choices: convince her to trust the man he's become, or lose a second chance at what he's always wanted ... her.

If Belle is going to get a speeding ticket, it might as well be written by the hottest cop South Island has ever seen. But Officer Jackson Calder isn't just a daydream in blue, he's the first man she ever slept with, and the only one she doesn't regret.

One routine traffic stop, and Jackson's past is back to haunt him in the most bittersweet way imaginable. Too good for him and too good to forget, Belle became a fantasy after she left the island. Now that she's home for good in the Lowcountry, she's a living, breathing temptation he can't resist.

He was her first, but that was just the beginning. It's being the last that counts.

Book 1 in the South Island PD Series.

South Island PD Book 2, Past Midnight, is coming soon in March 2016.
