Stand M. C. Wilson

This book is about understanding. I originally said it was about love, but that seemed overly dramatic...and kind of misleading – there are no love stories in this book. What this book does have is a lot of new vocabulary; words like intersex, genderfluid, and pansexual (which, by the way, that has nothing to do with being attracted to pots and pans). Most people have at least heard these words before, but most people also have a lot of misconceptions about what the words actually mean. I see that as a problem. And I believe that when you see a problem, you should stand up and say something about it (or write something about it). And so, I wrote this.
