Have Mercy Upon Me: The Prayer of the Penitent in Psalm 51 Explained and Applied Andrew Murray

"Psalm 51, which is ordinarily regarded as chiefly intended for those who are penitent, or who are seeking salvation, contains such glorious representations of all the rich blessing which the grace of God will implant in the soul, of the joy which it gives, the power it exercises, the confession it draws out, the God-glorifying thanksgiving which it enables the soul to yield, that it cannot be other than helpful for you also who believe, to understand what we may be by the grace of God."
