Two Core Parts—One Cohesive Program

Voyages in English is organized into two distinct parts: grammar and writing. The student books are divided in this way to help teachers tailor lesson plans to student needs and to differentiate instruction. The benefits of this organization include the following:

- Grammar lessons have a greater level of depth, giving students the tools needed to learn the structure of language.

- Writing instruction is relevant to students' lives, to the literature they read and enjoy, and to the writing they experience every day.
- Integration opportunities are built into the program, allowing teachers to show the relationship between grammar and writing.
- Flexible planning becomes simple, allowing for adaptations based on students' developmental levels.
- Long-range and thematic planning is effortless, allowing teachers to cover the required standards.
