Indeed, You'll find lots about the home team in this book that few know well or at all. Are you familiar with the great Redskins team captain whose playing career ended when he injured himself running off the field after a coin toss? Can you name the head coach who had the best winning percentage in Washigton Redskins history (no,it wasn't Joe Gibbs) and which had the worst? Do you know which players made up the Papoose Backfield? Or the Washington coach who invented the screen pass? You'll learn about this and much more:

How legendary quarterback Sammy Baugh got the name "Slingin' Sammy" from playing baseball, not football

The innovations and bigotry of George Preston Marshall, the last NFL owner to intergrate his team and the one who had "Dixie" played before games

President Nixon's 1971 play-calling suggestion for a key playoff game that the Redskins lost
